

Michael Joukowsky is a seasoned entrepreneur in the business and investment world CEO and President of Crawford High Performance Composite Group as well as the CEO of a private investment firm specializing in domestic and international value oriented investments. In addition, Mr. Joukowsky is a General Partner in the SSP Real Asset GP, LLC and SSP Private Equity GP, LLC.

Mr. Joukowsky has also founded and manages several private investment companies involved in acquisitions and mergers, real estate and mortgage acquisition, as well as a private family investment and advisory firm.

In 1996, Mr. Joukowsky became co-founder and owner of Resolute Racing Shells in Bristol Rhode Island, founded by a team of world cup yacht builders and designers and Manager of Crawford Composites, LLC a North Carolina, a manufacturer of high performance composite products including NASCAR professional race cars and the Chairman of General Composites,

Inc. a New York contract composite manufacture that does work for the medical, defense and recreation industries.

Mr. Joukowsky is a graduate of Brown University and received his MBA from Babson College and has been a member of the Brown University President's Leadership Council since its inception in 2004.

Other appointments and committees that Mr. Joukowsky serves are:

- The investment committee for Lifespan which is the largest medical services provider in Southeastern New England.
- Chairman of the investment committee for the Family Foundation
- Co-Chair, Norman Prince Neurosciences Institute Advisory Council (NPNI)
- Member, NPNI Steering Committee
- Trustee, Rhode Island Hospital Foundation
- Member, Lifespan Investments Committee
- Member of the Brown Annual Fund Leadership Council - (2002 to 2005) and an Entrepreneurship Program Advisory Board Member (1999 to Present).

Mr. Joukowsky is a co-founder of the Entrepreneurship Forum and continues to participate in this annual effort and participated in the development of the Initiative for Entrepreneurship and Organizational Studies and currently serves as co-chair of the fundraising committee.

Mr. Joukowsky joined the Brown University Sports Foundation Board of Directors in 1994 and has served on his class' 5th, 10th, 15th and 20th Reunion Committees, serving as Co-chair of the Reunion Gifts Committee for the 15th and 20th. Since 1987, Mr. Joukowsky has been a member of the Brown University Adjunct Faculty, Engineering Department and also teaches a section of Engineering 9.

Born in Milan, Italy and having lived in Lebanon, Hong Kong and New York, Mr. Joukowsky has made his home in Providence, Rhode Island, USA.

Contact information:

Michael Joukowsky

1-401-274-8560 W

1-401-447-0809 Mobile

Email: Michael.Joukowsky@ganesa.net